To change your password, use one of the Windows workstations in MSEC239.

After logging in, press Ctrl-Alt-Del and select the change password button.

After changing your password, you may need to change the credentials on your local machine for accessing printers or network mounted drives. This can be done by trying to open the network drive or by browsing to `\eessamba` and when prompted for credentials input your new password.